Community Information:

The city of Springfield is situated just east of I-5 between the McKenzie and Willamette Rivers and part of a college community. This location is within an hour of the coast, and mountains. Springfield has much to offer individuals who are considering making this great city their home. With a history of adventurous pioneer spirit, today's Springfield is home to individuals who plan for the present with an eye to the future.

Neighboring Eugene is home to friendly, outgoing people; an environment with someone for everyone – from the rugged outdoors to quiet gardens to bustling city streets; and residents that appreciate healthy lifestyles, bike friendly, cultural diversity and the arts. First-rate services, excellent educational opportunities, top-notch health care and four fabulous seasons offering a year-round symphony for your senses.

Springfield and neighboring Eugene offer many great schools as well as opportunity for outdoor recreation. There are many local wineries, hiking options and truly has all four seasons of weather without the extremes in the winter and the summer months.
